Porter and Friend Now Held on

Charge of Burglary.

One Hundred and Sixth Street, walked one Hundred and Sixth Street, walked up Sixth Avenue at Fifty-eighth Street at 4 o'clock this morning with a burlap bag on his back. Policeman Hoffstadt asked what was in the bag and Sana-

tore, who declared he was moving, said

As the man stepped away Hoffstadt heard a clinking sound such as no honneard a clinking sound such as no hon-est clothes should make, so he opened the bag and found in it bottles of champagne and whiskey. Hoffstadt went to the Westerly Hotel, whose lab-el was on the bottles, and asked the porter, Francisco Rito, if there had been a robbery. He declared Rito offered him 55 not to investigate further. Both prisoners were held in $1,000 hail for burglary.

it contained his clothing.

ERICKSON JUMPS WELL AT SCANDINAVIAN MEET. 'CLOTHING' WAS CHAMPAGNE.

Willie Kyronen of the Millrose A. A. won the one-mile run of the Scan-dinavian American Athletic League at Ulmer Park yesterday. He finished by a big margin ahead of his club mate, Otto Laskso. C. J. Sundwal of the Star A. C. was third. The victor was clocked in 4 minutes 46 1-5 seconds.

of 6 feet for the running high jump by one-quarter of an inch. The 100yard dash was won by Hugo R. Swanson of the Star A. C. In the 120-yard low hurdle race H. B. Jorgensen of the Norwegian Turn Society proved the best.
T. Ellertsen of the Norwegian A. C. outstepped a good field in the quartermile run. With a fing of 119 feet 7 inches, J. Davidson of the Swedish-American A. C. landed the crown in the discus contest.

RYAN MADE RECORD. BUT IT DOESN'T GO.

Pat Ryan buried the 16-pound ham-mer 191 feet 4½ inches yesterday at Celtic Park. But Ryan's record doesn't count because he stepped half an inch outside of the circle. In the three-mile race Hans Kolehmainen was beaten because of the big handicaps allowed the other starters. Frank Mas-terson was the winner. The Finn an-ished fifth. Kiviat and Devaney were both beaten in the three-quarter mile special by Willis Gordon of the New York A. C.

KRAMER AND OHRT SCORE IN BIKE RACES.

as Cort of San Francisco won on another at the Newark Velodrome yes-terday. Champion Frank Kramer won the Grand Prize of Newark. The race was ridden in heats and the champion won in straight heats from Jackie Clark and Marcel Dupuy.

Dead Heat on Speedway. Denver and Oakland Roy raced to a dead heat yesterday in the half-mile event for trotters on the Speedway.
The time, 1.03%, was the best of the day. Clover Patch won the 1.03 pace and Courier Boy was best in the 1.05 event for trotters.

Joseph Izzo, twenty-one years old, of No. 475 Broadway, Astoria, employed in the maintenance department of the Long Island Raliroad, was slectrocuted yesterday afternoon when, in attempting to get out of the way of a train, he stepped upon a third rail. Isso was about to return to Italy is join his colors. The accident occurred at Stryker Avenue and Scenal Stroct, Woodside.

Seattle Offers to Pay Expenses of Harvard, Yale, Columbia and Cornell—Courtney Denies He Will Retire.

Seattle Offers to Pay Expenses of Harvard, It is understood, has practically agreed to send its crew across the continent, and Robert Herrick, who coached the Harvard Henley crew a yea: ago and is Chairman of the Harvard Rowing Commission, is entitusiastic over the idea. Yaching the pians expenses of the greatest intercollegiste. N. Y., June 14.

Plans were unfolded here to-day for one of the greatest intercollegiste boat races ever held, to take place at Seattle, Wash., in the week of July 16, with crews from Harvard, Yale, Columbia, Cornell and Pennsylvania from the Bast, and Leland Stanford, California and Washington from the West.

The plan was first broached a year of the first of the plan, and all three are on the Pwest, in a four-mile contest to decide the intercollegiste champlonship and at the same time to boost college rewing in the West.

to be a healthy three-months-old girl baby. The foundling is now in the Kings County Hospital at Flatbush. The boys were passing through the park when they saw a basket hidden in some bushes. They intended to help themselves to a picnic lunch, but instead a baby's cries sent them running to Patrolman Zimmerman. He found that the baby was neatly clothed and apparently had been well looked after. There were no marks of identification on the clothing or the basket.

Belleve Tug Burned at Sea. WASHINGTON, June 14.—A tug ywas believed at Coast Guard headquarters here to-day to have burned and sunk with all on board off the Virginia Capes Friday. The Cutter Onondaga which was rushed to the rescue from Hampton Roads failed to find the craft, so was thought to have arrived too late. The name of the tug was not ascertained.
